THREE YORKERS DIE AS TRUCK CRUSHES CAR

A father and two young sons, of York, were killed Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock when a tractor-trailer overturned on the car occupied by the victims on a curve along the Gettysburg-Frederick road, one and three-tenths miles north of Thurmont.

Ernest Harbaugh, 40, and his sons, Stanley, 10, and Randy, 14 months, were killed in the accident.

Mrs. Maude Harbaugh, 34, the wife and mother, was reported today in a satisfactory condition at the Warner hospital where she was brought in the Emmitsburg VFW ambulance. She suffered a laceration of the scalp with concussion, four fractured ribs on the left side, sprain of the back and small lacerations to both hands and forearms.

Car Top Smashed
A daughter, Patsy, 12, was treated at the Frederick hospital for multiple cuts and bruises and shock.

The tractor-trailer was driven by William Charles Dehart, 37, of Steelton, and was traveling south with a load of army cots for Camp Pickett, when it over-turned on the Harbaugh car which was proceeding north. Dehart, who was uninjured, was held in the Frederick county jail pending further investigation.

A witness said the car roof was pushed nearly to the floorboard. The Harbaughs were trapped in the wreckage until repairmen with acetylene torches were able to cut them free.

Normal traffic was not restored on the highway until more than five hours after the accident took place, heavy wrecking equipment being required to clear the highway.

500 PA. GIRLS COMPETING FOR PIE BAKING TITLE

Competition in the annual cherry pie baking contest held by the Pennsylvania State Cherry Growers association began this week, with the state-wide champion to be named at Hanover February 10.

Twenty students at Littlestown high school today and Tuesday are taking part in an elimination contest there. Littlestown will name its titlist Wednesday. York Springs will choose its champion on Wednesday. Gettysburg high school will hold its contest Friday and East Berlin will have its pie baking event January 30. New Oxford and Biglerville are also scheduled to hold contests prior to the selection of the Adams county champion here February 5.

The county champions will compete for the state title at Hanover and then the state titlist will compete with champions from 34 other states in the national contest at Chicago, February 21.

Cumberland county will name its titlist February 8 at Carlisle high school; Perry county, February 7 at Newport; York county February 3 at Hanover. Franklin, Erie and Crawford counties have not announced the dates for their county contests.

Thomas Oyler, Gettysburg R. 3, president of the Pennsylvania Cherry Growers association, estimated that 500 girls throughout the state are scheduled to compete in the contest. The event is open to girls between the ages of 15 and 20.

New Interchange Will Open Soon

The Gettysburg-Harrisburg road (Route 15) interchange on the Pennsylvania Turnpike is expected to be opened "before February 1" a spokesman for the Turnpike commission said Saturday.

Planned after the other interchanges on the 100-mile extension of the superhighway had been well under construction, the access point is located at the foot of Winding Hill, on the Gettysburg road.

All paving for the project is completed, but toll booth fixtures and equipment remain to be installed, it is said. The booth supplies and material had to be ordered separately, it was explained, after contracts had been completed for construction of the interchanges in the original extension plan.

Mother Of 3 Polio Victim

Mrs. Boyd Henderson, Gettysburg R. 2, 21-year-old mother of three, was reported to the local Infantile Paralysis association chapter today as being critically ill with polio.

Mrs. Joseph E. Codori, of the local March of Dimes organization, said doctors at the Harrisburg hospital where Mrs. Henderson was moved over the week-end, said that the case was definitely polio and that the young mother is nearly completely paralyzed.

Mrs. Henderson was said to have been ill since prior to the birth of her last child December 21. However, the illness did not seem sufficient to warrant additional care by physicians until last week when Dr. David Stoner was called. He consulted with a Harrisburg doctor and polio was suspected.

Saturday Mr. Henderson saw Mrs. Codori to ask that the local Infantile Paralysis society guarantee payments that may be needed at the Harrisburg hospital and arrangements were made for Mrs. Henderson to be moved there.

LITTLESTOWN'S POLICE CHIEF IS ON TRIAL TODAY

Trial of Leon H. Gage, Littlestown chief of police, on a liquor law violation began this morning in Adams county court.

Gage is charged with buying wine for John Franklin "Dick" Mays, of Littlestown at four times in September and October. This morning Mays' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Mays, Littlestown, and his sister, Miss Opal Mays, were on the stand to testify that for the last several decades Mays has "caused trouble" as a result of drinking. Miss Mays told the jury: "He's 38 and I'm 33 and as long as I can remember 'Dick' has been drinking and causing trouble. But you couldn't know a nicer man than he is when he's sober."

Emory Mays identified a paper which he said he had drawn up by a Littlestown justice of peace asking the officials at the liquor store in Littlestown to cease selling wine or other intoxicating drinks to his son. He said Chief Gage had taken the notice to the liquor store.

Got Wine For Chief

William H. Renner, Littlestown, testified that Chief Gage had given him $2.75 for muscatel wine and told him that when he got it he should put the wine in the rear of Gage's car. Renner said the Chief was in uniform at the time and that after the wine was placed in the car Gage drove away. Renner said the chief stopped about a block away and John Mays got into the car. George William Cool, of Littlestown, testified to Gage's car being stopped near St. John's Lutheran church shortly thereafter and Mays getting out of the car, carrying what appeared to be a jug of wine. Gage, Cool said, then turned his car around and returned toward the center of Littlestown while Mays walked on toward his home.

Mays is in jail now on a disorderly conduct charge. His sister told the jury she had him arrested about a week ago when he "got drunk and set fire to the bed in his room."

MERCURY DIVES AFTER SETTING "HEAT" RECORD

After setting some local January heat records that have not been equaled here in more than four decades, the mercury took a 51-degree nosedive over the week-end with the arrival of more seasonable weather.

Accompanied by strong winds from the west, the change in the weather saw the temperature plummet from a high of 66 degrees on Friday and Saturday afternoon to a low of 15 degrees above zero early this morning.

Friday's high reading set an all-time record here for that date with the closest approach to such warmth on any other January 19 being readings of 61 degrees taken in 1926 and 1933.

Saturday's high of 66 equaled a record set for that date in 1926. Three Pittsburgh Gas company drastically curtailed supplies to industrial consumers today as a cold wave sent temperatures skidding, the Associated Press reported.

The western part of the state was hit hardest by the cold wave moving in from the Midwest. However, sub-freezing readings were reported in many areas. Readings of 10 to 15 above zero were common in Western Pennsylvania. Manufacturers Light and Heat company of Pittsburgh cut off all gas to industrial consumers to conserve supplies for domestic consumers.

Peoples Gas company made a 50 per cent slash to industries and Equitable Gas company asked industrial consumers to use gas for maintenance only. There was no immediate report of widespread layoffs although some employees may be without employment until the emergency ends.

NO FOUL PLAY IN BLACK DEATH

Harrisburg police Sunday night said they were satisfied there was no foul play in the death of Miss Elsie A. Black, secretary on the staff of the Central YMCA, Harrisburg, who died Friday at Harrisburg hospital after being admitted several days earlier in a dazed condition.

Miss Black, a native of Gettysburg, was found in a semi-stupor last Monday at her apartment, 222 Forster street, after she failed to report for work. Her personal physician ordered her moved to the hospital Tuesday.

Police said investigation indicated Miss Black suffered a cerebral hemorrhage and apparently fell over, which accounted for bruises of her knees and elbows. A sister of Miss Black reported she found blood on the bathroom floor, probably the scene of the fall.

Police and physicians reported Miss Black was subject to high blood pressure and apparently suffered an attack the preceding Saturday because neighbors on the floor below heard noise in Miss Black's apartment as though she had fallen.

However, an autopsy was ordered and a hospital interne said it was found death was due to "hemorrhage of the brain."

Funeral services Tuesday at 10 a.m. from the Baker funeral home, Third and Maclay streets, Harrisburg, conducted by the Rev. Samuel Clarke. Interment in Evergreen cemetery here. Friends may call at the funeral home this evening after 7 o'clock.

Funeral services for the Rev. Dr. Raymond C. Walker, pastor of Market Square Presbyterian church in Harrisburg for many years, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the church sanctuary. Dr. Walker died in his sleep Thursday at his Harrisburg home from a heart ailment.

Dr. Walker was well known in Gettysburg and had preached in the local Presbyterian church on a number of occasions and had spoken at other local church gatherings and was guest speaker on the Gettysburg college campus on several occasions.

The Rev. Seth C. Morrow, Cumberland, Md., former pastor of the Gettysburg Presbyterian church, conducted the funeral service assisted by the Rev. Morton Glise, Paxtang, and the Rev. Dr. George Sweazey, New York city, secretary of evangelism in the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

Alpine Avalanches Leave 141 Dead; Many Are Missing

By LYNN HEINZERLING
Geneva, Switzerland, Jan. 22 (AP)—The death toll stood at 141 with many still missing today as rescue workers in three Alpine countries continued to dig through snow and debris left by disastrous week-end avalanches.

Austria had at least 66 dead, Switzerland 60 and Italy 15 as a result of great slides crashing down Alpine slopes for the past three days. Whole villages were buried, houses broken like kindling wood and families entombed by the thundering snow.

In Austria, where an untold number of persons still are missing, Interior Minister Oscar Helmer said the government is considering appropriate aid measures for the victims.

The semi-official Swiss news agency said that the disaster struck at least 15 localities in Switzerland. Besides the 60 dead, it said, 20 others were missing and another 20 were reported seriously injured.

In Italy, in addition to the dead, at least 50 persons were injured, many of them caught beneath roofs crumpled by the weight of the snow. The snow still was falling on the Italian side of the Alps, causing fears there would be more avalanches.

On the Swiss side the number of avalanches appeared to be decreasing, but officials warned that there still was danger.

Thousands of British and American sports lovers were temporarily isolated at swank ski resorts. Among the marooned were 500 British and 70 Americans at Davos, Switzerland.

None of the resorts were believed to be in any danger, however. They were said to have ample food stocks. The unusual number of slides resulted from heavy snows last week. Avalanches are not uncommon in the Alps, but the week-end number was believed a record.

Throughout the night rescue workers toiled feverishly in an effort to save some 14 men and women still buried at the Swiss village of Vals, 4,000 feet up in the Alps.

Cadet Clapsaddle On First Solo Flight

Whiting Field, Milton, Florida — Arthur B. Clapsaddle, naval aviation cadet, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Clapsaddle, Gettysburg R. 1, recently completed the first phase of his naval aviation training by taking his solo flight.

Working for his wings and a commission as an ensign in the United States Navy, Clapsaddle flew for the first time unescorted by an instructor in the Navy's SNJ Texan Trainer.

Clapsaddle, who attended Gettysburg high school, arrived at Whiting Field, November 7, 1950.

DRIVERLESS TRUCK BREAKS SIGNS, LIGHT

A tractor-trailer truck owned by the Lee Metal Products company, 910 Fort avenue, Baltimore, broke off two traffic signs and a parking meter on the west side of Carlisle street in front of the Zentz used car lot at 2:30 o'clock this morning, and bent an ornamental electric light standard.

Borough police said the tractor-trailer was driven by George Herbert Snow, 312 West Fayette street, Baltimore. Snow had parked the truck on Carlisle street at the side of the Hotel Gettysburg while he went to a nearby restaurant.

Police said the brakes released and the truck drifted down and across Carlisle street. A state highway route number sign and a borough sign, "metered parking only" as well as a parking meter, were broken off and the light standard damaged.

The tractor-trailer was towed to a local garage for repairs to the front part of the tractor. Borough police directed traffic until the tractor-trailer was moved and red lanterns placed at the light pole.

Mrs. Craver Is Civic Council V. President

The name of Mrs. Forrest Craver was inadvertently omitted from the list of officers elected by the Women's Civic council at the meeting Friday night. Members of the nominating committee were Mrs. Elizabeth Hennig, Mrs. Sydney Poppay, Mrs. John Hewitt, Miss Martha Strausbaugh and Mrs. Louise Stanton.

GOVERNMENT STARTS WORK ON 'BEARD LOT'

The U.S. Government this morning began operations on the "Beard Lot" project at Fountaindale.

Buildings and other equipment were brought into the section over the week-end and this morning driven onto the side of the 1,500-foot high mountain on the Hoy B. Martin property to the south of the Waynesboro-Emmitsburg road and east of the Fountaindale-Sabillasville road. The project site seemed to be several hundred yards to the south of and above the Carson service station on the Sunshine trail. Entrance for the equipment was being made over the property of Mr. Martin from the Sabillasville-Fountaindale road.

The project has been previously listed as part of an underground communications system for the nation being constructed at Camp Ritchie. A recent petition by the government with the Federal court at Lewisburg asked condemnation (Continued on Page 4)

LT. EUGENE HAAS TAKING COURSE AT FORT BRAGG

First Lieut. Eugene M. Haas, former football and basketball coach at Biglerville high school and now a photo interpretation officer with the 28th Division, Pennsylvania National Guard, is one of 30 key staff officers of the division currently attending the first class of the new air support specialist school at Fort Bragg, N. C.

The course is being conducted by the army air support center to train operations officers in the intricacies of calling for and receiving close-in air support in front of combat troops. Upon completion of the two weeks' course, Lieut. Haas will return to duty with the division at Camp Atterbury, Ind., and be principal advisor to the commanding officer on decisions relative to application and employment of air-ground support.

At a later date the army air support center and its air force component will send a joint instruction team to orient and indoctrinate the entire 28th Division with field exercises simulating actual combat use of napalm, bombs, rockets and 50-caliber ammunition in an air strike on an enemy immediately to the front of ground forces. The troops will learn about the communications, liaison and equipment necessary to coordinate such an attack in a brief resume of the complete course Lieut. Haas is now taking at Fort Bragg.

Lieut. Haas is a son of Eugene L. H. Haas, Hanover. He is married to the former Doris Gibson and they have one daughter, Carol Louise, four. He graduated from Gettysburg college in 1943 and received his MA degree at Columbia in 1948. Recalled last fall to active duty, he is a distinguished veteran of World War II, having served in seven campaigns with the Fifth Air Force in the South Pacific.

FACE RECKLESS DRIVING COUNTS

Ten-day notices went out today from the office of Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore to Clarence M. Warner, 22 1/2 Chambersburg street, and John Hefflin, Jr., Gettysburg R. 3, charging both motorists with reckless driving. The information filed by borough police charged that Warner and Hefflin drove around Lincoln Square at 12:15 o'clock Sunday morning, at a high rate of speed, endangering the safety of others.

Irvin M. Canary and Albert Stone, both of Baltimore, paid fines of $2 each and costs to Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder Saturday night on charges of parking on the highway without lights. The two men were driving cars which were towing other vehicles. The charges were filed by state police of the Gettysburg substation.

Arthur B. Weston, Akron, Ohio, truck driver, paid a fine of $50 and costs to Squire Snyder on an over-weight charge, filed by state police. A ten-day notice was sent to Harold Mentzer, Shippensburg R. 2, on a charge of running through a red blinker light. Borough police filed the charge.

CLASSES START TUESDAY

The first aid classes, sponsored by the Red Cross, will start Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the YWCA. Thursday's class will meet at 1:30 p.m. at the Y.

Tokyo, Jan. 22 (AP)—Four powerful Allied columns looking for a fight thrust deep into Communist territory today but Reds on the western Korean front didn't answer the challenge.

The motorized columns were bolstered with tanks and mobile artillery. They returned to the main Allied lines late Monday afternoon after blasting several Red patrols in minor skirmishes.

The columns ranged across a 50-mile span of the western front and pushed within less than 25 miles of Red-held Seoul. Termed officially a "reconnaissance in considerable force," the scouting patrols were charged with taking Red prisoners and obtaining information on Communist troop buildups.

"I guess they saw us coming and ran to the north to hide," an Allied intelligence officer said. "They seem to be willing to stay and fight when we send out small patrols. But when we beef one up and hunt them out with it they run away. Then we pull out and they filter back into their former positions."

Re-take Wonju Airstrip

On the central front, Allied forces retook Wonju airstrip and nearby hill 233 Monday after a three-hour fight. A Communist regiment had held the commanding hill for two days.

Wonju is the road and rail gate to the heart of South Korea. Allied forces withdrew last Tuesday after a fighting stand there of nearly three weeks but strong patrols returned last Friday.

An Eighth Army communique Monday night said the Second's stand at Wonju starting January 8 apparently had checked a planned Communist offensive through the mountain passes south of Wonju. But it added: "Late reports indicate the Communists are again building up strength in the Wonju area for another offensive."

Along the western front, where the Reds also were reported massing troops for a new drive, the four Allied combat patrols met virtually no opposition.

Clamp On "Blackout"

One column drove straight through Osan and prowled north of the town. Osan, 28 air miles south of Seoul, is the place where the first American soldier of the Korean war was killed. There the green U. S. 24th Division began its bitter retreat last summer down the Korean peninsula.

A second column ranged through Kumyangsang, 10 miles northeast of Osan. A third unit drove north between these two columns.

The fourth column ran into an hour long fire-fight shortly after noon Monday (10 p.m., EST, Sunday) near Ichon, along the lateral road from Kumyangsang to Wonju. This Allied prowl force left 22 Communist dead sprawled in the snow in zero weather.

Then the U. S. Eighth Army clamped a security blackout on all news stories mentioning action on the western front. It banned reporting of any movement after noon Monday in the area west of Yoji, a town 18 miles west of Wonju. The ban covered the entire area where the four strong Allied motorized columns were operating.

Pair Forfeits Bail On Motor Charges

John Phelan, Waterbury, Conn., forfeited bail of $10 and costs to Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore today on a charge of driving without an operator's license, and Francis W. O'Brien, Emmitsburg R. 3, forfeited $25 and costs for allowing Phelan to drive his automobile.

Both men were arrested by borough police at 1:45 o'clock Sunday morning on Baltimore street. Authorities said Phelan, O'Brien and two other men were arguing over who was to drive O'Brien's automobile back to Emmitsburg. Police were called by neighbors who heard the argument, and stopped the car just as Phelan was pulling away from the curb, they said.

A hearing was held this morning at the opening of court, on the sale of the Hamiltonban township election house site. Commissioners Clerk Clarence C. Smith appeared on the stand to tell of plans to sell the election house property and move the election house to a new site a short distance from the present one. Judge W. C. Sheely announced he would hand down an opinion later.

A petition was received by the court from the prospective jurors asking that the jury to be drawn in the various cases arising from an accident between Joseph V. Smarsh and George W. Howe be permitted to visit the scene in order to get a clearer idea of how the accident occurred. The court also will hand down an opinion on that request. Three cases resulting from the accident are scheduled for the current term of court. The three will probably be held concurrently.

Daley, Gettysburg; Mrs. Dorothy Deardorff, New Oxford; Ralph Gobrecht, New Oxford R. 2; Chester Moore, formerly of Gettysburg R. 5, who has moved out of the county; Leo S. STOCKS SCRAMBLED

New York, Jan. 22 (AP)—The interest in stock trading leaned toward the smaller companies and the lower priced issues today. Trading in the pivotal stocks was a scrambled affair, with only a few more gainers than losers appearing over the list. Traders bid cautiously for the well-known shares, with the result that price changes were extremely narrow.

Hanover Opposes Warriors Here Tuesday In Key Game

The Gettysburg high school cagers will run into a two-platoon system when they meet Hanover here Tuesday evening in a South Penn league game.

Coach Bernie Thrush has found enviable success with his system, the Nighthawks now being in a second-place tie with Chambersburg and, like the Trojans, are hopeful the league-leading Hershey team encounters a stumbling block before the first half race ends Friday.

In recent games the Hanover coach has started his "little" team which includes Soapy Hart and Gene Lookenbill, forwards; Dick Sanders, center, and Al Gruver and Dick Rhodes, guards.

Among the "big" team spark-plugs are Bob Reese, Harold Stremmel and Harry Holm.

Tuesday's game is a "must" for the visiting Nighthawks. A defeat would eliminate them from the first half title race.

In view of the importance of the game a large number of Hanover fans is expected to come here to witness the battle.

GHS Must Improve
The Warriors slipped to a new low Friday night when they were played off their feet by Chambersburg. They will have to show vast improvement if they hope to win over their old rivals.

Another close preliminary game is in prospect when the reserve cagers tangle at 6:45. Ross Sachs' outfit will be out to regain its winning ways after losing to Chambersburg. At present a four-way tie exists in the scrap for second place among Gettysburg, Hanover, Hershey and Carlisle.

Chambersburg, which left little doubt in local fans' minds who will be the ultimate champion, should win easily Tuesday over Mechanicsburg while Shippensburg and Waynesboro seem destined for a close affair at Shippensburg. Carlisle and Hershey will meet Wednesday at Hershey with the league-leaders favored.

Roger Herr's Gettysburg junior high cagers will seek their second straight league win at Hanover Tuesday night in an important contest.

County League Tilts
Games listed Tuesday night in the hectic Adams County league include: York Springs at Biglerville; East Berlin at Newville, and New Oxford at Littlestown. All are important. Biglerville, East Berlin and New Oxford are in a three-way tie for the lead.

Westminster will play at Delone on Tuesday.

BULLETS DROP 73-52 VERDICT TO PENN STATE

Penn State's zone defense proved too much for Gettysburg college's basketball team as the Bullets lost Saturday night, 73-52, before a partisan crowd of 5,000 at State College.

Gettysburg was very much in the ball game during the early minutes of the first half as fouls by Stretch Watson and Tom Ketterman gave the Bullets a 2-0 lead.

A field goal by Harry Williams tied the score but a charity toss by Ketterman and two by George Hare gave Gettysburg a 5-2 edge. Two quick tap-ins by Jay McMahan, six inch center for State, put the home team ahead to stay at 6-5.

Ahead by only six points, 25-19 with a little over a minute to go in the first half, Penn State drew away to 30-19 on quick goals by Lou Lamie and Williams and a foul by Ted Panoplos.

Bullets Spurt
Wasting little time in the second half, State drew away from the Bullets and held a 39-23 advantage with 14:20 to go. After going ahead 47-27, State started to wither and Gettysburg closed the gap to 47-37 but it was a dying gasp.

Bob O'Brien and Hank Belber, senior guards, played good ball for the Bullets. Lamie, who failed to start the game because of miserable performances this year, came out of his slump with 21 points. Pint-sized Panoplos was a thorn in Gettysburg's side all evening as he hooped 19.

Penn State's total of 73 points was its high for the year.

Gettysburg travels to Annville to play the hot-and-cold Lebanon Valley cagers on Saturday night.

Sports Roundup
New York, Jan. 22 (AP)—Almost overlooked among the football rules committee's decisions last week was the reduction of the penalty for an illegal shift from 15 to five yards. . . .

It probably doesn't concern the average present day fan a bit. . . . But historically, that change marks the end of what probably was the only rule ever aimed directly at one coach and one team. . . . Rules Chairman Fritz Crisler dropped a hint when he said the "condition" for which this rule was passed "no longer exists." It was directed at shifts involving entire teams. Now there's usually only one man involved in what might be illegal shifts and officials have hesitated to inflict the severe penalty.

ROCK VS. THE REST.
Go back some 30 years to the time when Knute Rockne and his Notre Dame teams were beginning to sweep the headlines and you'll find rival coaches protesting bitterly against the "Notre Dame shift." . . . The Irish backs and sometimes the entire line would shift from their starting formation into more advantageous positions and be off. It had the characteristics of the "momentum" play, frowned upon since the days of the guards' back play, and was almost impossible to stop. . . . Jesse Harper introduced this style at Notre Dame; Rockne brought it to the peak of perfection in the 1920's and such influential gents as Fielding Yost and Bob Zuppke led the opposition. . . . They forced through a rule requiring players to come to a full stop after a shift, but that didn't stop Notre Dame. Rockne taught his backs to stop their feet, complying with the rule, while their bodies still swayed. . . . Eventually the rule was made to call for a complete one-second stop and the Notre Dame shift was shorn of its elements of power and surprise.

SLOW WHISTLE
When Penn State's basketball team used "deep freeze" tactics to beat Bucknell, 25-15, recently, the score for the first half was 5 to 3. . . . Most of the entertainment was provided by the remarks from the stand, rather than the "action" on the floor, with one booming.

Knute Rockne's Son Wounded Critically

Wichita, Kas., Jan. 22 (AP)—William D. Rockne, son of the famous Notre Dame football coach, Knute Rockne, was reported in critical condition today from pistol wounds. Officers said he was shot after he forced entry into a Wichita home Saturday night.

Sheriff Ty Lockett said Rockne, 35, entered the home of Joe Novacek, a used car dealer, and was shot twice by Novacek.

Rockne, whose noted father was killed in 1931 in an airliner crash in Kansas, underwent an emergency operation yesterday. His mother arrived here last night from South Bend, Ind.

William Rockne was a patient in the state mental hospital at Elgin, Ill., from 1936 through 1939 and received occasional treatment after that time. Friends of the family said burns suffered at the age of five and a delayed start in school apparently affected him mentally.

He voiced customer offering plenty of caustic words. . . . Then, just as the teams lined up for the second half, the same voice roared: "If State gets the tap, I'm going home—because the game's over."

The Korean War crisis brought new attention to guayule, the American desert plant that produces natural rubber.

CHICAGO BEARS WANT TOUR OF EAST IN 1951

Chicago, Jan. 22 (AP)—The National Football league's annual meeting staggered into its fifth day today because Chicago Bear owner George Halas thinks "Auld Lang Syne" in pro football pays off at the box office.

Where Horace Greeley advised: "Go west, young man," Halas hollers: "go east, my Bears."

As a result, the other 11 club owners today tried once again to agree on a divisional lineup for the 1951 season, or even possibly arrange a round-robin setup in which each club plays every other club.

Halas insists that his Bears renew traditional league rivalries with the New York Giants and Washington Redskins, or perhaps have a go at the champion Cleveland Browns.

Last season, the Bears were anchored in the National (Western) division and played only their cross-town rivals, the Chicago Cardinals as an American (Eastern) opponent.

Halas says that unless he gets to circulating back in the east, his Bears—the league's biggest gate attraction last season—will wilt on the western vine.

Halas' oratory to sports writers on the need for a more fluid divisional set-up dominated a Sunday session in which the club owners also:

By an 11 to 1 vote approved legislation that commissioner Bert Bell claims will increase league game television by 75 per cent next year.

Defeated proposals by the San Francisco 49ers which would have forbidden trade of bonus or first draft choices, and allowed teams under a 500 percentage to snag two picks in the second and third draft rounds.

Approved wearing of white or silver pants in night games. (Previously white pants were barred because of possible deception by clever holding of a white ball.)

Approved a $15,000 guarantee for each league team in exhibitions in non-league cities where games had been played before with different payoffs for each club.

DUQUESNE WILL DROP FOOTBALL

Pittsburgh, Jan. 22 (AP)—Duquesne university is dropping out of the college football wars.

The Very Reverend Vernon F. Gallagher, Duquesne president, said the university is withdrawing because of declining football fortunes and the national emergency.

The Pittsburgh school resumed action on the gridiron in 1947 after a three year lapse during World War II, but had little success.

The Ducks won only nine games while dropping 27 and tying one. Its financial department suffered even more.

Father Gallagher made the announcement with obvious regret. He cited the loss of Coach Phil Ahlweh, who was called to military service. He added:

"We do not contemplate a permanent abandonment of football nor do we plan to make Duquesne a basketball school."

Duquesne basketball teams have fared far better than recent football eleven. The cagers are now riding on a 13-2 record for the current season.

having invited them to a "turkey intercourse occupied the time until evening, when they went into Taneytown on the invitation of Father Gloyd, and played at the Catholic fair then in progress, making a favorable impression on those present.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

POWER OF ENTHUSIASM

Few things in this world have ever been accomplished without enthusiasm. The story of every successful life is strewn with it. The very essence of enthusiasm lies within the person and his objective. It's the enthusiastic salesman who brings home the most bacon, as the saying goes.

From the life of the great French scientist Louis Pasteur I came across a statement of his about enthusiasm, speaking of it as "the beautiful word . . . bequeathed to us by the Greeks (en theos), an inward God."
It is well to remember this derivation, as it is most expressive of the word. We can achieve so much more if we believe that "an inward God" cheers us on!

The inspiring thing about a college athletic contest is the enthusiasm manifested. Every cheer is an uplift to the spirit of the individual or the play. None of us would ever accomplish much that is worth while without appreciation and the enthusiasm of others to supplement our own.

If you don't believe in yourself, and in that which you want others to believe in, you might as well do nothing, which is about the same thing as being a nobody and getting nowhere. But with enthusiasm as an asset you keep creating and recreating self-confidence, and influencing others to house that "inward God" of yours.

Unfortunately, enthusiasm is often misplaced—used at the wrong time in the wrong way—but so are many other things! The important thing at the start, when you feel enthusiasm bubbling to a good heat, is for you to steer that enthusiasm into the right road. There are any number of these sorts of roads, each of which, taken, may easily lead to success and happiness. A wrong road, however, might kill an enthusiasm forever!

All inventors, discoverers, scientists and hobbyists are enthusiasts. That is largely because they get fun out of their work, and have an object before them at all times. Also they keep thinking about the permanence of their toil and enthusiasm. Just think of the enthusiasm aroused in us all because of the enthusiasm of the pioneers!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "An Antidote."

A DAY

Tomorrow may not be.
Eight hours for sleep from

Leave sixteen unto me.

Take out the hours required to dine:
To ride by car or train:
To do whatever task is mine,
And but a few remain.

But, oh, the difference it will

With all who hold me dear,
If but a single hour I take
To comfort and to cheer!

re-inauguration of Gov. Hartranft.
Persons who have witnessed inaugurations for thirty years say that it was the most imposing affair of the kind the State Capital has ever witnessed. There were from five to seven thousand persons in the procession. There were 25 full bands and about the same number of drum corps. The procession occupied fully an hour. All honor is due to the men who marched so unflinchingly through streets that were perfect beds of mortar.

The display of fire works in the Capitol grounds at night was magnificent.

The "Century" has again changed hands—Mr. A. L. Heikes, a graduate of the Compiler office, purchasing the interest of Mr. M. G. Comfort.

On motion of Hon. D. Wills, S. H.
Galtbreath, formerly of Perry county, was admitted to the Bar of this County.

Sales: Mr. Levi Mumper has purchased the property of Mr.
Griest, at the west end of town for $1,400.

Samuel Eicholtz has purchased the farm of William Bell, in Men-allen township, 145 acres and improvements at $5,250.

John N. Sox has sold to Robert McIlhenny his farm in Straban township, formerly owned by William Wible.

Blassius Kivel, of Fairfield, while driving home in a wagon, seated in a rocking chair, by a tilt of the wrist.

of Gettysburg; William R. Benson, brother of the bride, and Albert E.

Reception Held

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Edgewood club where the mothers of the couple assisted in receiving Mrs. Benson wearing a navy blue dress, with lace trimming and a lace jacket. She wore a corsage of deep rose camellias. Mrs.
Wentz was attired in a rose lace dress with matching accessories and she wore a light pink camellia corsage.

When the couple left for the POCOnos, the bride wore a beige gabardine suit, brown accessories, and a lime colored flowered hat. After January 28, the Rev. and Mrs. Wentz will be at home at 44 Harrison street,
New Haven.

Mrs. Wentz attended Russell Sage

Wentz was graduated from Gettysburg ical seminary. He is studying for the doctorate at the Yale Divinity and Graduate schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Benson entertained

Last week the government at

Sees Son In Movies;
Notified He's Dead

Syracuse, N. Y., Jan. 22 (AP)—Mrs.
Hubert L. Partlow went to a theater yesterday to see her marine son in a movie.

Summoned from the audience when her husband called from home, she was told of a telegram from the Defense Department.

The message said Sgt. Kenneth A. Partlow, 20, had been killed in action December 1. He previously had been reported wounded on that date.

Sgt. Partlow appeared with other marines in the film, "Halls of Mon-tezuma." They were shown in an assault landing.

Notes On Annual Flowers

On the brightly colored pages of seed catalogues already arriving as a welcoming committee to greet another spring is a wealth of useful advice and information to help growers and beginners select and start a fine array of annual flowers.
For example, most seed firms divide annuals into four main groups or classes. Some designate these 1, 2, 3, and 4; others use the letters A, B, C, and D to denote the groupings.
If the practical significances of these classifications are studied, an important key to success is at once acquired.

One group consists of flowers (annuals) whose seed should be sown where the plants are to grow, sowing preferably after frost dangers are past and the soil is warm.
These usually include plants which are tender and which do not lend themselves easily to transplanting.

In many instances those in the first group permit handling through the same methods as the second group. Here with these seed can be sown in window boxes, hotbeds, coldframes or in individual pots or other containers and started under glass or indoors about six or seven weeks before the last freezing or otherwise detrimental weather villifications. After seedlings develop two or more true leaves they are moved to individual pots or bands and kept thriving in a coldframe until time to move them to their growing sites.
Then the transfer is made without unduly disturbing the roots. At least three to six weeks in starting time is gained over the first described method.

The third group permits treatment like those of the first but may be seeded later, even until midsummer, to provide a succession of blooms until fall frosts come.

The last group are the hardy numbers of the annual family. Seed may be sown as soon as soil and weather conditions permit in early spring. Few of these can be transplanted by ordinary methods, hence seed should be sown where the plants are to grow. Sweet peas are a prominent example of this group.
Snapdragons is another, although this plant is biennial in habits.
Sweet William is another.

Whatever the designation, offerings in the annuals which seed catalogues present should be studied with care. Of course, when readers are in doubt about how to start a particular annual or perennial flower they may write the editor for needed advice. Do not merely ask,
"Please tell me how to grow

SLAYER OF FIVE GETS LIFE TERM

Woodbury, N. J., Jan. 22 (AP)—Ernest Ingenito, the stocky little man who killed five of his wife's relatives, began serving a life prison term Saturday after being found guilty of first degree murder. A recommendation of mercy by the seven women and five men on the jury saved Ingenito from the electric chair.

The jury returned its verdict at 9:30 p.m. (EST) Friday after deliberating more than four hours.

They had listened to Prosecutor E. Milton Hannold demand the death penalty and court-appointed Defense Attorney Frank Sahl plead for no greater a penalty than second degree murder.

Sahl broke down and wept as in a broken voice he implored the jurors: "When you go out to deliberate, remember that he went down there to see his children. God almighty! I couldn't stand it myself."

The attorney was referring to Ingenito's testimony in which he gave a detailed account of oppression by his mother-in-law in his marital difficulties.

Ingenito was tried only for the slaying of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Michael Mazzoli, 43. She was one of the five relatives of his wife whom he shot to death in a night of terror in the scrumbled of Piney Hollow last Nov. 17.

Hannold would not comment on whether he will press the other four

Seek Russ Attitude On Big Four Talks

Washington, Jan. 22 (AP)—The U. S., Britain and France will call on Russia this week to state its attitude toward sitting down with them to talk over a wide range of world problems.

The western powers' note, carefully worded, will be delivered in Moscow probably Tuesday. It will be the fourth in a series of exchanges between Russia and the West on the idea of holding a Big Four meeting.

The curious thing about this exchange is that none of the governments involved seems to feel that a Big Four session actually would result in substantial agreements and thereby lessen world tension. On the contrary, some authorities here feel that tensions at the end of any such session might be worse because of its failures.

Nevertheless, the three Western governments, and particularly the British and French, seem to think it is necessary to go through the motions of meeting and talking things over for two main purposes: First, to prove an interest in leaving no possible avenue to peace unexplored; and second, to gain whatever propaganda advantage there may be in the course of the talks.

Indictments against Ingenito. The salesman also wounded four persons, including his wife, Teresa, 23.

Sale of newspapers on the streets in America was rare before the early 1830's.

New York, Jan. 22 (AP)—Soviet United Nations Delegate Jacob A. Malik, laid up for the past five days with a recurrence of an old heart ailment, is reported to be "much better." A Russian spokesman said Malik should soon be able to resume his duties at the U.N.

RADIO

New York, Jan. 22 (AP)—"Counter Spy," recently moved from ABC to NBC Sunday afternoons, has been given the assignment as the sponsor replacement for long-running "We the People." That program is going off NBC radio but continuing on NBC television. The last radio will be Thursday night.

"We the People," formerly on CBS, dates its start back to 1936. It specialized in interviews with ordinary folk who had unusual experiences and was among the first of the sponsored radio features to take on television. For a year the programs ran simultaneously, but last fall the two were separated with the TV version continuing on Friday nights.

In dropping the radio series, the sponsor said he felt it had lost its appeal there. However, in television the reverse has been the case. He added that it was much more successful than in the radio heyday even, largely because the personalities interviewed also can be seen.

Listening tonight (Monday): NBC — 8 Gordon MacCrae show "Dearest Enemy"; 9 Jascha Heifetz with Donald Voorhees concert; 9:30 Paul Lavalle Band of America; 10:30 NBC Symphony hour.

CBS — 8 Dick Haymes in Hollywood Playhouse; 9 radio theater "Broken Arrow"; 10 My Friend Irma; 10:30 Bob Hawk quiz.

ABC — 8 Inner Sanctum mystery; 8:30 Henry Taylor talk; 9 Martha Lou Harp show; 9:30 Johnny Desmond.

MBS — 8 Bobby Benson drama; 8:30 Crime Fighters; 9 Murder by Experts; 9:30 Korean report.

Are you between the ages of 38 and 52 and going through the functional 'middle-age' period peculiar to women—the time when fertility ebbs away; do you suffer nervous, strangely restless, irritable feelings—due to this cause? Then start taking Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once to relieve such symptoms. Lydia Pinkham's Compound gives simply wonderful relief because it works through a woman's sympathetic nervous system!
Taken regularly (tastes swell in a little water or fruit juice)—Pinkham's Compound helps build up resistance against such female distress. If you suffer this way, don't fail to try this remarkable medicine.
Lydia Pinkham's Compound is also very effective to relieve pain and distress of female functional periodic disturbances. Truly 'the woman's friend.'

THOUSANDS OF DOCTORS PRESCRIBE PERTUSSIN FOR BAD COUGHS

Resulting from Colds!
This famous modern cough medicine acts at once to relieve such coughing and lessens the urge to cough.
PERTUSSIN is scientifically prepared to work internally. It increases natural secretions in the respiratory tract. Thus PERTUSSIN helps to loosen and "cut" the sticky, clinging phlegm and to turn a dry and tight cough into that greatly desired "productive" or loose stage of a cough during which phlegm is easily raised.
PERTUSSIN acts promptly, and relief often comes with the first spoonfuls. That's why PERTUSSIN is in such great demand. PERTUSSIN contains no harmful ingredients of any kind. It's a very pleasant-tasting cough medicine and is safe for both old and young—even small children. You can buy PERTUSSIN today from any drugstore at a moderate price.
